

[Accesneur disability conference : "Understanding and developing inclusive practice in éducation" \[1\]](#)

13 juillet 2016, Londres (Royaume-Uni)

This conference is designed to build and develop understanding of inclusive practice in education, to develop a flexible learning environment and accommodate individual learning differences. This conference will focus on the key issues facing Higher education institutions (HEIs), schools, colleges and the voluntary sector in aiming to widening access to higher education in London.
